JOHNSON IS ASKED

Attitude of California Senator Toward Treaty Causes Would-Be Supporters to Withhold Advocacy.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.

(Special Correspondent of the News Scimitar.)
WASHINGTON, May 25.—Will Senator Hiram Johnson boit the Republican national convention unless the treaty of Versailles, league of nations and all is condemned? Republicans who like the California senator and want to help him win the Republican nomination, but who are not in sympathy with his stand on the treaty question, are eager to know.

know. Indeed, Leland Stanford, resident of Stoneville, N. C., has put the question squarely before Senator Johnson, but says that as yet he has received no answer. He is a full-fledged Republican and was asked to serve on the committee in North Carolina which would promote the candidacy of Hiram Johnson in that state. Before accepting membership on the committee, however, he sent the following telegram to Senator Johnson:

"There is on foot a concentrated and state to promote your campaign rou intend to boit from the Repub-iparty unless reservations, league, by and all are condemned? Will di-m exist on your part and your fol-rs if the convention stands for the ge reservations? Wire me what reon you and your supporters

The truth is, Johnson's chances apturing the Republican nominate beginning to look better. Except in so-called radicalism, he would be in rood favor with older leaders of the par-y, most of whom are not at all dis-urbed by Senator Johnson's views on he treaty. Lately there has been a per-listent movement to refute the talk uld ever become president, he really ald not be radical at all. Did Hiram upset the state of Cali-nia?" is the inquiry which friends the senator propound to the skeptics. Business men who fear Johnson is a sort of Republican Bryan are being assured that their apprehensions are groundless. But, while the Johnson movement gains ground, there is prospect of a dramatic speech by Senator Johnson at the convention itself, for he

Overtures to Johnson will unquestionably be made so as to retain, if possible, his support. The big question is whether Johnson's followers will be satisfied with a formal reconciliation that eliminates Johnson. The talk of Johnson for vice-president persists, and while nobody knows whether he would run with would be Senators who have been closest to Johnson in recent years say that the only man Johnson would run with would be Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, who is being backed by Senator Penrose.

His friends, men like William Randolph Hearst, are absolutely sure the Republican convention is going to be won over to him. They are, therefore, counseling him to stay regular. On the other hand, Johnson's principal source of strength is his supposed intention to boil the convention and take his followers into another party. If he flatly pledges himself not to boil, he may tactically weaken his position. Probably he will follow the old political rule of not saying anything until he must.

BAPTIST "FIFTH SUNDAY" REVIVED AT BARTLETT FOR LARGE CHURCH GATHERING

The Bartlett Baptist church is preparing for the observance of fifth Sunday, a return to a unique custom much in vogue in the early Baptist church, when it was common for one preacher to serve a number of congregationa. Usually these old-time preachers had four regular preaching appointments each month. In a month that had five Sundays, there was no acheduled appointment for the fifth Sunday, so it became the custom for all the preachers to meet at one church and the popils to come in for miles around for a rervice in which all the preachers took part, lasting from Friday night until over Sunday.

It has been many years since this custom has been observed in Memphis, since all of the churches have regular pastors with services each Sunday. The month of May having five Sundays this year. Rev. O. A. Litey, pastor of Bartlett church, conceived the idea of noiding such a service at Bartlett, with the view to promoting closer fellowship among the ministers and provide an opportunity for an interchange of views on live topics of the day.

Rev. D. A. Ellis, pastor of La Belle Baptist church, and president of the Shelby County Baptist association, will preach the opening sermon at 7:45 p.m. Friday.

Boone at 1,50 clock, Rev. of the Judice at 11 o'clock, Rev. Jefferies will deliver the sermon. Bartlett church extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend all of the services.

Board Meeting.

That the question of increases in teachers' salary and costs of operating the city public school system until June 20, 1921, which will involve the expenditure of $3,027,159.80, is now up to the mayor and city commission, was the opinion of all members of the board of education, voiced at their meeting wear. Rev O. A. Lilley, postor of Bartlett church, conceived the idea of moding such a service at Bartlett, with the view to promoting closer fellowship among the ministers and provide an opportunity for an interchange of views on live topics of the day.

Rev D. A. Ellis, pastor of La Belle Baptist church, and president of the Shelby County Baptist association, will preach the opening sermon at 7:45 p.m.

Use Cocoanut Oil For Washing Hair

Most scaps and prepared snampoos ontain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil thampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly lajure the hair. as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out casils, and removes every particle of dust, dirt. dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. and easy to manage, You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. ### U. S. A. Presbyterians Exchange Greetings over union with the Presbyterian church. U. S. A., the assembly of the latter church, in session at Philadelphia and the Cumberland Presbyterian general assembly, which concludes its assion here today, have exchanged grectings. In response to greeting from the Presbyterian general assembly. U. S. A., the assembly here has directed Dr. D. W. Fooks, stated clerk, to send the following response.

"In the spirit of our Lord and Savior, we accept and return vaid greetings and earnestly join in the desire for the day when all barriers against a common fellowship shall have been removed." noved."
The committee's report of the reponse yesterday was greeted by great applause. The vote adopting it was practically unanimous and the announcement of the vote was followed by nonneement of the vote was followed by the singing of the doxology. The committee to which was referred memorials relative to ordaining women as elders, descons and ministers, reports that the proposition which had been referred to the presbyteries for a vote has been lost, is presbyteries cut of 72 voting favorably and 29 adversely. According to D. M. McAnulty, chairman of the committee on judiciary, the action does not signify that the church is altogether opposed to women participating in these of education, voiced at their meeting Monday night.

A report of the subcommittee, composed of George R. James, chairman; Mrs. Sam H. Phillips, Miss Elizabeth Dix, J. W. McGure and F. M. Guthrie, appointed by the general committee to receive the auditors' report and reach a decision upon what action should be taken in regard to raising the necessary funds, was read at the meeting, stating that the city of Memphis was under obligation to its employes of the schools and that with steady influx of labor, which will serve to increase enrollment in all schools, there is no longer any hope that costs of operation under the old salary basis can be carried out.

Although figures from the federal general committee, "as the situation is now so critical that it may be found necessary to reduce the present num-ber of teachers and close some of the schools should the money authorized by the city be inadequate to meet the increase according to the federal sched-ule."

proved the expenditure for the auditorium.

Letivities of the school along industrial lines were explained by Prof. Highsan, who spoke of the cotton grading classes which have been kept up with the sid of cotton brokers and merchants of Memphis.

We now have more applications for this class than we can take care of at present, said Prof. Highsaw, but we hope to spread out on a larger scale so that none will be forced to wait to take advantage of this opportunity of learning the greatest game in the worth.

HOLD COMMENCEMENT BARE LEGS AND SCANT ATTIRE ARE SANCTIONED

WASHINGTON, May "5 - Bare legs and scanty one-piece bathing suits will be permitted the summer at thesa-peake Bonch, the capital's scashore reort. Officials today agreed to discegard as precedents the prohibitory orders issued at Coney Island and Atlantic tity against daring bathing costumes. "It's silly to put the ban on bare legs," they said, and if any of the girls want to cut the high cost of dressing the police won't say a word."
